E-Newsletter

Welcome Back!

School Starts on Tuesday, September 6

We are anxiously awaiting the start of another school year. When classes resume on Tuesday, September 6, students, parents and staff will notice many new additions. This summer, the South Park School District welcomed a new superintendent of schools, continued the renovation of South Park Middle School, introduced a one-to-one technology initiative and launched a new website. We will introduce and explore some of the changes for the 2016-2017 school year in this and in future editions of the Eagle Eye E-Newsletter.

Transportation and homeroom assignments were sent to families the week of August 22. Home Access Center went back online on Wednesday, August 24. If you have any questions, please contact your school office.

Share Your Back-to-School Photos!

For the second straight year, we are asking families to share their back-to-school photos on the South Park School District Facebook page. You can post your pictures on our Back to School post on Tuesday, September 6. We'll use the posted photos to create a collage commemorating the First Day of School!

South Park Students Get 21st Century Tool as Part of New One-to-One Technology Initiative

Many South Park students in fifth through twelfth grade are already taking advantage of the new tool provided to them by the South Park School District as part of a new one-to-one technology initiative.

The district announced in July that all South Park students in third through twelfth grades would receive a Chromebook for the 2016-2017 school year. Students started to receive the Chromebooks the week of August 22 during Chromebook Distribution Days.

A New Look for South Park Middle School

A look inside the South Park Middle School cafeteria from August 26, 2016

Inside the new South Park Middle School library at the site of the former school office

When school starts at South Park Middle School on Tuesday, September 6, students will see some big changes. During summer vacation, work inside and outside the school picked up at an accelerated pace.

Classrooms on the first and second floors are scheduled to be completed in time for the first day of school. The kitchen and the cafeteria are also scheduled to be completed for the first day of school. Work on the new gymnasium will continue through October. The installation of new hardwood floors has begun. While the gymnasium is being completed, physical education classes will be held in alternate locations including the cafeteria, classrooms and outside. There is a health education component of physical education classes that involves classroom instruction. This instruction can take place during the weeks while the new gymnasium is being completed.

The 190-seat large group instruction room, located in the former gymnasium, is the next and final phase of the South Park Middle School renovation. The LGI room is scheduled to be completed when the entire project wraps up in December 2016.

Students who are car riders in the morning should be dropped off in the rear of the building near the cafeteria from 8:00 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. Parents/guardians who are picking up students in the afternoon should arrive between 3:00 p.m. and 3:10 p.m. and report to the rear parking area near the cafeteria. Parents/guardians will need to check in with the monitor before escorting their child to the car. Car riders will be dismissed at approximately 3:05 p.m. once the buses have departed.

If you know about an event, fundraiser or student recognition, we would like to know about it!

Chromebook Program

Families who were unable to make it to one of the Chromebook Distribution Days can access, print and complete the Parent Chromebook Agreement and Technology Protection Plan forms on the Chromebook Program webpage. Students can bring these forms with them to school. Chromebooks will only be distributed to students who have turned in the required paperwork.

Students in third and fourth grades will receive their Chromebook during the first week of classes.

WPXI Makes Back-to-School Visit to South Park

The South Park School District welcomed WPXI to South Park High School on Wednesday, August 31. Morning reporter Steven Fisher delivered doughnuts and coffee to the high school faculty and staff to welcome them back to school. While at South Park High School, the WPXI crew also recorded video for an upcoming promotional video. We'll be sure to post the video when we receive it.

SP South Park School District
Strengthening minds. Powering futures.

The South Park School District's mission is to provide an educational atmosphere where all students have opportunities to discover their talents, develop their abilities, and achieve the expectations embedded in our educational program to become responsible and productive members of society.
